BENJAMIN CHILES AND DESCENDANTS

It has thus far not been possible to establish the birthplace and ancestry of BENJAMIN CHILES. He and his children spelled the family name CHILES; some members of succeeding generations have used the spelling CHILES. Benjamin's granddaughter Mrs. Eleanor Jane (Chiles) Meehan (1839-1925) of Covington, Ky. in 1890 supplied information to the publisher of a Chiles genealogy that Benjamin came from Maryland, was born about 1755, and that his wife's maiden name was Susan Griffin. There are records of several men named Benjamin Chiles, Childs, Child, etc. in both Maryland and Virginia in the period. Archives of Anne Arundel County, Maryland, show that a Benjamin Childs married Susannah Griffith on 27 May 1786. (It also shows marriages of "Benjamin Childs" in 1781, possibly a first marriage, and in 1818, the last one certainly not being our Benjamin.) It is tempting to conclude that the 1786 marriage was our Benjamin, especially as his will made in Ohio on 19 February 1824 speaks of "my beloved wife Susannah Chiles", but some lingering doubt remains. It is by no means ruled out that Benjamin Chiles was a descendant of the Virginian Walter Chiles, especially in view of the spelling of the name. The northern families of this name usually spell it CHILES; a principal early immigrant was Ephraim Child who came to Roxbury, Massachusetts in 1630 accompanied by his nephew Benjamin Child. Descendants of this branch settled generally in the Massachusetts area on down to Baltimore and below. Benjamin was a common Christian name in both the Virginia and Maryland families, which adds to the confusion.

The first positive record of our BENJAMIN CHILES is that he appears in the Federal Census of 1810 in Frederick County, Virginia, along with his wife, 5 sons, and 4 daughters, whose names are not given. One son and two of the daughters are in age bracket "16 but not 26" and both Benjamin and his wife are shown in age column "46 up". All these dates and ages are compatible with the postulated birth date 1755 and the marriage in 1786. In Ohio, Benjamin settled in Quaker country, but it is not established that he was or was not a Quaker. An Ohio genealogist now deceased listed him in a 1955 DAR publication as a "Revolutionary Soldier who lived in Ohio," but this has not been verified.

Mrs. Eleanor Jane Chiles Meehan wrote that Benjamin had three older brothers, Cornelius, William, and Nathaniel. No details are positively known about them.

Briefly then, Benjamin was born about 1755, definitely was in Frederick County, Va. in 1810 and probably before 1800 (there is no 1800 census for the county). He pushed on to Highland County, Ohio where he bought 105 acres of land for $600. on 10 December 1816, and took with him there his wife Susannah, sons Stanley (died 1839 unmarried), William who was alive in 1857, Josephus and Samuel who "died young" probably in Ohio, Mordecai or Mordecai (1802-1833), and John who died unmarried after 1836; also daughters Susan, Sarah, Mary, and Nancy, all of whom married. Benjamin Chiles died in Highland County, Ohio about 1824; his will was probated in 1830; his widow Susannah probably died about that time; the land was sold by sons John and Stanley Chiles 22 February 1836.

Of all those named thus far, I have contacted descendants as follows: an unmarried grandson and a married granddaughter and her two sons, all descended from Mordecai, son of Benjamin.

When he went to Ohio in 1816, Benjamin left behind in Virginia sons Griffin and Mason. Mason Chiles lived near Strasburg, Virginia, and a great granddaughter Ann Margaret Chiles (Mrs. C. H. Spiggle) lives in Strasburg 1968. There are other living descendants of Mason.

Our ancestor GRIFFIN CHILES, a farmer, lived north of Winchester, Virginia. The pictures on the other side of this frame have been copied from various family albums, principally those belonging to Miss Ridgely Jackson of Winchester, a grand daughter of Griffin Chiles and his third wife Susan C. Pigeon.

Isaac Benjamin Childs.

From "West Liberty (Iowa) Index," 8 Aug 1912. List

The life of Isaac Benjamin Childs, one of the oldest residents of the vicinity, came to a close early Tuesday morning at the house of Mrs Mary Dillingham, Fourth Street, West Liberty, where he had lived for several years. He was 87 years of age last January and had been in failing health for some time, his years so enfeebling him that he could not combat illness.

He was born in Frederick County, Virginia January 26, 1825 and came to Iowa in 1853. Shortly after his location in Iowa he joined with his brother William, and Caleb Elliott, in the operation of a sawmill a short distance north of the present town of West Liberty. When he retired from this work he engaged in farming, continuing this until coming to West Liberty in October of 1907.

December 15, 1859 he was married to Emma L. Junkin and to them one daughter, Mary, was born. The wife died many years ago and the daughter's death occurred a few days after she and her father had moved to town. One brother in Elgin, Wisconsin and 2 sisters in Winchester, Virginia, are left.

Griffin Chiles, Jr.

Third Child, second son, of Griffin Chiles and Mary Ann Cole, was born near Winchester, Va. 8 March 1829. He went to Texas before the Civil War, where about 1860 he married Pauline Julia Bohne, a native of Prussia who had emigrated to Texas with her father and one or more sisters. They were married and resided in Huntsville, Texas. On 20 March 1862 he enlisted in Company A, 21st Texas Cavalry, Parsons Brigade, CSA when, according to his enlistment papers in the National Archives, Washington DC, he was 33 years old, traveled 65 miles to rendezvous, had an horse valued $140 and equipment $35, and enlisted for 3 years in the war. He was a carpenter and cabinet maker by trade, and in the home of the late Drury Clumger (Chart 25) who was a nephew of Griffin Chiles Jr., residing at Winchester, Va.

There is a small table or stand on which is written, on the side of a drawer "This was made by Griffin Chiles." In the National Archives are copies of his pay records or muster roll Aug 3 1862 to Feb. 28 1863 and Sept and Oct 1863. He appears on a Confederate army report of "Artisans in the Command" as a carpenter, the report being dated "Near Caddo, Arkansas," 13 Oct 1863. These reports are found on Microfilm Roll 110 of the Confederate military records in the Archives. I have one of his letters to his wife "My dear Pauline" dated "Camp near Bayou de Glaze, La. May the 20th 1864, as follows:

My dear Pauline,

When I last wrote to you we were near Alexandria (La). That night we got news that the enemy had or was leaving the town. We ~~and~~ went ~~within~~ within 2 miles and camped for the night. Next morning we took up our line of march and at 10 we came to their fort, the place they tried to get us to run them in to. We met the good French ladies of Alexandria who come out to meet us they brought us something to eat there was a big hotel that a French man took us in. I left my horse with one of our Company with the promise to divide what I got. I went into a little room and he had plenty of good Yankay whiskey I took a drink and took him one, my horse holder. I went to the dining room and found plenty plenty of good Yankee coffee and fried meat and biscuit. All the cups were engaged, I took a half gal. bucket that had sugar in and emptied its contents on the table and filled the bucket and got some crackers and started to divide my coffee. We eat and drank that up and then I started for more coffee and by the time we got through we were ready for the chase again. I got plenty of crackers to do me 5 days. The Yankees set fire to the best part of town and burnt all the front down. My bed fellow got 4 good Yankee blankets he bought them for 5 dollars apiece. I got 2 of them one nice new one and one that has been worn some, he got 2 that was used, so if I have luck in keeping them I will have plenty for winter and won't need one from you for I have as much as I need and not in want for anything.

We left town and come up with the rear guard of the enemy in 3 miles and pitched into them and fought them for 7 miles and then we camped for the night. Next day we were reinforced by the balance of our brigade and every day since then we have been fighting them. Yesterday was the hardest fought battle that our regiment has ever been engaged in. We had about 7000 men and the Yankees 20000. The fight opened by part of the 21st and part of the 19th charging the enemy camp at L.F. was on picket the night before and was sent out on the night to watch the movements of the enemy and to pick off stragglers. We were in sight when the charge was made. The first line of Yankees gave back a little but the field was covered with one line after another so our men gave back and they brought up about 12 pieces of cannon and we had 8 and then for one hour it was almost deafening; then one brigade of infantry and 3 regiments of Cavalry dismounted and moved forward to engage the enemy with small arms. Our regiment was on the extreme right to keep from being flanked. The roar of small arms was awful. That lasted until near sun down. Both parties drew off willing its quit.

Today about 50 Yankees have been buried and about the same number of our men but several hundred must have been wounded on both sides. Col. Parsons' regiment has suffered severely. The enemy got more prisoners than we did. The Yankee ambulances were carrying off their wounded all night. This morning their pickets can be seen from the battlefield but they are shipping their men down the bayou. I learnt that the fight is over and that we will go and recruit our horses which need them and men too. Capt. Weir of the 12th was killed, the one that was in command at Hempstead.

Driffin Chiles, Jr.

Tell Ed I got him a knife and will send it to him. (one line illegible)

--- Mr Jones that he done well not to be with us on this trip, the dust and smoke and sun was enough to wear out the best of constitutions. This is the second day that we have not been riding since I left home, yet got on the same clothes that I started from home in, once I took off my shirt and "draws" and washed them and dry them by the fire and I am not alone in that respect. I got one letter from you --- and 2 items. I will write the first chance. Tell Augusta that I will write to her and John soon as we get in camp again. J. Chiles "

Extract from a letter Huntsville Texas Oct 9 1865 from widow of Driffin Chiles Jr to his sister Susan Chiles (later Mrs C. E. Clevenger):

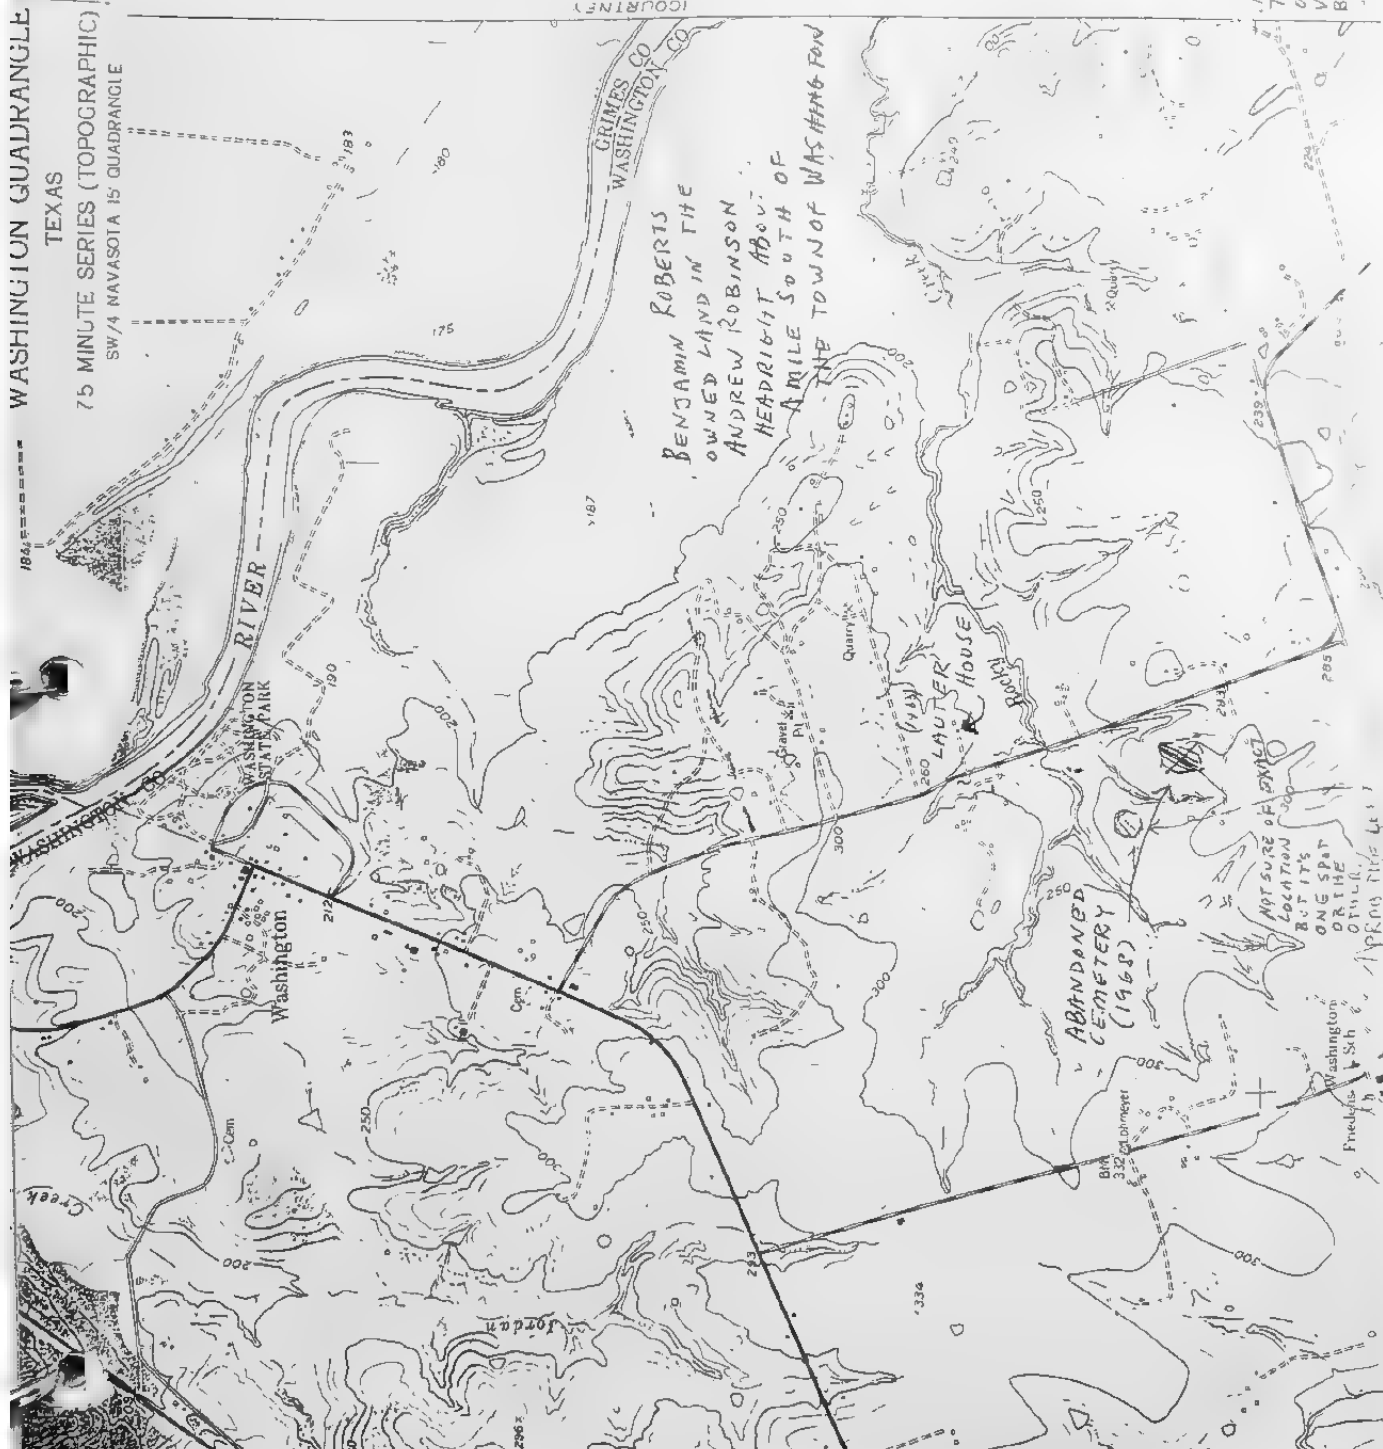

"My darling sister Sue,
"..... It most breaks my heart to tell you, he died the 10th of July 1864. He joined the army in April 1862, left me and one little boy 6 months old, went to Arkansas the 12th of May and did not return until the 8th of January 1864. Then he stayed at home until March when he went to Louisiana where they had hard fighting, they were in 21 different engagements and suffered a great deal from exposure, he came very near getting killed once or twice. They stayed there until the last of June. Mr. Chiles was not very well. had two or three chills. Then they were ordered to Hempstead, Texas to rest. All came by home to stay a few days. He got home on the 2nd of July and left on the 5th was not very well. I begged hard for him to stay but he was so faithful he said as Long as he was able he must be at his post. When he got to Hempstead he had another chill; they stayed there a few days and then started home. He complained some but thought he could get here, he rode all day and stopped at the next town, Washington (Texas) where he stopped to stay all night not being able to travel longer. He stopped with a Mr. Roberts, that was Friday night the 8th. The next morning he wanted to start home early, by hard riding he would get home at night, but Mr. Roberts told him he was not able to go, to wait and see if he had another chill. He soon took very sick and did not speak another word, but suffered until Sunday evening at 5 o'clock. Sunday at 12 Mr. Roberts telegraphed to come he was very sick. I went immediately and got there Monday evening, they had just returned from the graveyard where they had left all that was nearer and dearer to me than all on earth. O, Merciful God, there never was grief like that on earth and I prayed for his help to bear it but it seemed too much to stand. I only saw the place where he had lain, and then his dear grave, how I did wish to stay by it I never shall forget.

(your) Affectionate sister, P. J. Chiles

My father who was only about 4 when his father died, all his life wanted to find his father's grave but never did manage to do so. In March 1968 I went to the County Courthouse at Brenham, Texas and found that Benjamin Roberts owned land in "the headright of Andrew Robinson" about a mile south of the old town of Washington (now "Washington-on-the-Brazos State Park, site of the capital of the Republic of Texas). There was no Roberts stone in the present town cemetery or one just west of it, however the postmaster suggested an abandoned cemetery on the land of a Mr. Lanter. Mr. Lanter took me to this place, a quiet spot in one of his fields, with a few old gravestones mostly illegible, with beehives and soft-eyed cows & calves all around, anxious to be fed. This cemetery was nearer to the Benjamin Roberts place than ^{any} other, and from what I know of the circumstances at the time, this seemed the right place to me. I left there with a sense of fulfillment, that acting for my father I had visited his ~~own~~ father's grave at last. R.I.P.

James Wilkinson Childs

Depere, Wis. Journal-Democrat, Thursday 1 May 1919 List

James W. Childs died 28 April at 85 years 2 months, Depere's oldest living retired merchant. He fell Thursday 24 April on the porch of his late home in Milwaukee and suffered a compound fracture of the hip. Funeral Wednesday 30 April, Depere Lodge F+AM No. 65, Greenwood Cemetery.

Immediate family at funeral:

Charles A. Childs of Negaunee, Michigan

Lillian Childs of Milwaukee

Mrs. James W. Childs

He leaves: widow and 4 children,

Charles of Negaunee, Mich

Ellen Virginia of Denver, Colorado.

Grace (Mrs Charles R Williams) of Denver

Lillian, of Milwaukee

James W. Childs was one of Depere's oldest and most respected citizens. He was the personification of honesty and integrity. He was born Feb. 20 1834 in Frederick County, Virginia. He worked on his father's farm until he was 20 years old and then went into a store as clerk in Staunton, Va., and was there about the time Woodrow Wilson, now President, was a resident of that city. After 2 years work in the store he went to York, Pa. to a Commercial College. After completing his course he was made professor of book keeping. After serving six months in this capacity he resigned because of an insufficient number of pay days.

He then went to Chicago to seek employment as an accountant. After two days anxious search he found a merchant, Mr. Kelsey, from Depere who wanted assistance in that line. Mr. Kelsey paid his fare to Depere, arriving here on May 6, 1857, 62 years ago.

He afterward engaged in the Mercantile business here and conducted a successful store for many years until he retired. Mr Childs had lived here ever since coming to Depue. He and Mrs Childs left the city only a few months ago to take up their residence with a daughter, Miss Lillian Childs, of Milwaukee, as Mr. Childs' health was becoming enfeebled and he needed more care and attention than could be given him here.

He was one of the oldest Masons in the state, having joined the Depue lodge in July 1864.

He was President of the Depue Board at one time in the early 1870's and had been previous to that time a member of the Board. He served 12 years as a member of the Depue School Board, being one of its earlier presidents. He also served as Assessor for the east side for a term.

His was a clean, temperate life, above reproach. He was loved and respected by his family, associates, and friends. "

Albany Erie Journal-Democrat, May 2, 1946 Dist

Funeral services for James W. Childs, aged 55, who died suddenly at his home about four o'clock Monday afternoon, will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Childs was born in Depere Nov 22, 1891, son of the late Mr. & Mrs. Charles A. Childs and grandson of the late Mr. & Mrs. James Wilkinson Childs, well known pioneer residents. He was graduated from Ashpeming Mich high school and later attended the University of Chicago and Carroll College. He was owner and manager of the Childs Chemical Company of Depere, which he operated for the past 20 years.

The only immediate survivor is his widow, the former Edches (Edda?) Roth whom he married in 1938.

Mr. Childs had been ill about 3 weeks and had just returned from the business district, a few blocks from his home, when he suffered a heart attack which proved fatal.

Charles A. Childs

LePere Journal-Democrat May 3 1934 (Wisconsin) gist

"Charles A. Childs, 72, a member of one of LePere's pioneer families and well known throughout this section, passed away at a Green Bay hospital Friday morning following a long illness with a complication of diseases. He was the son of Mr & Mrs James Wilkinson Childs, was born in LePere July 29 1861 and spent his life here and in upper Michigan managing stores in several cities.

His mother was a daughter of Dr. A. B. Williams and made three trips to California in the days of the Gold Rush with other Forty-niners when the long land trip was made by ox-cart. The Williams family, located in Placerville, then called Hangtown, California.

Dr. Williams came here from Nauvoo, Illinois, originally a settlement of the Mormons under Smith, after he had been threatened with others who refused to join the new sect.

Mr. Childs received his education in the public schools of LePere and was graduated from the high school. He afterwards attended the Green Bay Business College and then entered the mercantile business. He was manager of the Edward Erickson Department Store of Escanaba (Mich), then Selwood's store at Ishpeming, and other stores in the northern country. For the last 8 years he has been advertising writer and window decorator with Lee Brothers Company.

Surviving are his wife, son James W., and a sister Miss Lillian Childs, Denver, Colorado.

John Alexander Childs

A letter from John Alexander Childs dated Sept. 16, 1866 to his sister-in-law about the death of his brother Briggs Childs Jr.

"To Julia Childs, Dear sister,

I will try and write you a few lines though never having had the pleasure of seeing you I feel at a loss almost how to write or what to write. I do not remember whether I ever wrote to Bro Briggs after he and you were married or not (that does not matter) I feel as if I were writing to you all as of old, but alas when I pause and reflect, when I remember the many pleasant times we have spent around the old homestead, when I remember when he left us full of hope and everything seemed bright and clear, no cloud then seemed to hang over his path and seemed bright in the future, then I have to remember he is no more, I feel like crying out O God, what have we done that we should have been visited thus, but God's ways are not as our ways, so we have to say, Thy will be done. I had hoped the good Lord had spared our family, that four years of war had left us without the loss of one member, but when the news of Bro Briggs' death came, alas for us we have only now to mourn our loss, but we only pray our loss is his gain. I was at father's last week, they were all well and had just received a letter from you and with it Bro Briggs' picture. Mother told me when I wrote to you to let you know they had come safe they send their love to you and Eddy.

Brother James paid us a flying visit the first of this present month & stayed one week and returned. I received a letter from him after he () to New York, he is home before now.

The weather is very cool here. Frost last night though not very heavy. Write to us. I will have to close this (-) Mary sends her love. We have two children Willie and Maggie, they send their love to Eddy. From your brother

June 10th, at the home of her father, John A. Childs in Clarke County, Virginia, Maggie A. Childs, aged 21 years.

There are many young people in West Liberty and vicinity who will remember her as an associate and pupil with them in our public schools some 5 years ago, when she was for some months a member of the family of her uncle, William R. Dear Father,

This letter will probably surprise all my eastern Friends, and for me to describe my sudden move and why I make it is not very easy to do. In the first place Carson City has suddenly become very dull owing chiefly to the change of travel from what is called the Placerville route to the Dutch Flats route, the latter place running north to Virginia City, leaving this place far on the right thereby taking the trade, that had made so many of us a little fortune, away from us. I was so fortunate as to see how things were tending and sold my yard^(?) and one dwelling house, leaving only one good house^(?) & lot that cost me $1,000; this I have concluded to rent for one year.

I am now about starting with a fine lot of goods for Montana Territory. When I first made this arrangement my wife and son was going to live in this house with another lady whose husband is going with me, but when it drew near the time for me to start she or we could not bear the separation and as it will be quite a novelty for her to travel across the wide and extended plains we have concluded for her to go as far as Salt Lake City & then remain while I make the northern trip. Now I will not write much about this trip, feeling assured that it will prove a grand and profitable trip. I am going to load with Tea, Coffee, Tobacco & some clothing. Now to show the profits I will state that tea will cost me 65¢ per lb. here and in Salt Lake 30 days route for teams it sells at five dollars per lb. and in Montana a distance of four hundred miles farther it is 8 and 10¢ for the same kind of tea. Now I expect to have about $4000 invested and will at the lowest realize three times that amount at the end of my journey.

After receiving this letter all our letters must be directed to Salt Lake City, Utah Territory.

Our healths are pretty good now. Sallie has had a serious time since the birth of our darling son. She caught cold after he was a month old but now I think she is all right, at least the plams will restore her to perfect health. Our own little son is as bright & pretty as you ever saw a little fellow of 3 months. Our only fear is that he is too dear to us that he will be taken from us. We received today a letter from Aunt Sarah with her photo also letters from little Lizzie & Becky Pidgeon, one from Mrs. Wade, how glad we are to get letters from our dear friends. They told us of Charley & Francis's arrival, how I would like to hear from them.

Aunt Sarah mentioned that they had sent us a paper, we have not received a paper yet. Hoping soon to hear from all I will close with both our love to all, Mother, Emma, Becky, Joe, Nellie, Charley, Benj & in fact all, from your affectionate son,

Edward Griffin Chiles

Born at Huntsville, Texas. 22 Sept 1861. Originally named "Edward Lee", but this was changed to Edward Griffin after his father's death on 10 July 1864, and the death of an infant brother who had been named "Griffin Chiles". My grandmother was left with a house, and for some years supported herself and son by sewing, and by renting part of the house. She at one time was given a section of land by the state of Texas as the widow of a Confederate soldier; it was in East Texas and probably very valuable today, but she was forced to let it be sold for non-payment of taxes.

About 1880, she and my father moved to Cleburne, Texas, for some unknown reason. My father went to some kind of academy in Weatherford, Texas, probably a sort of commercial college, and spent most of his working years as a book-keeper. About 1917-1925 he was in the wood & coal business at Cleburne and did fairly well, but this dried up when natural gas became available in the town. He worked a little longer, then he and mother lived with Florence & myself for a few years, then in a small house at Arlington, Texas. About 1947 or so he slipped on the ice and broke his thigh, which was successfully pinned back together and he was ambulatory for several more years. After that injury he and my mother lived with my sister Mrs Conn in Corpus Christi, Texas, where mother died in 1950 and Dad in 1952. Both were buried in their family plot in the Cleburne, Texas, Cemetery.

My mother was born in Wartrace, Tennessee, had 2 brothers who were telegraph operators, and 2 sisters. Her mother's maiden name was Sarah Elizabeth Norvell dtr of Edward M B Norvell and Jerusha Arnold. Her father was J. F. Wilhoite, son of Pierce Wilhoite and Hattie Burroughs.

My father was a Baptist deacon (1st Baptist Church, Cleburne, Texas) for many years and both he and my mother were deeply religious. I have always considered and respected my father as the most scrupulously honest man I have ever known. As far as I know he only took one drink in his life and it was prescribed by a doctor; on second thought this may have been my mother, but anyway there was only one drink for the two of them. I wish I had been a more considerate son while I had the chance.

Harold M. Childs

From West Liberty, Iowa, Index, Thursday 16 January 1941. List of arbitrary.

"Harold M. Childs, elder son of William R. and Elizabeth Elliott Childs, was born in West Liberty Feb. 5, 1863, and died evening of January 9 at Mercy Hospital, Iowa City, where he had been for the previous eleven months.

He attended the West Liberty schools and in early boyhood became keenly interested in horses while associated with his uncle, the late Eli Elliott, cattle and horse dealer and importer of Shetland ponies.

Mr. Childs left West Liberty in 1886 to engage in the training of fine trotting horses, a work he followed until his retirement 9 years ago, when he returned to West Liberty. To him a thoroughbred horse was a dignified creation which demanded the best he had to give, and he never was satisfied until assured that every effort had been made to bring out every possibility the animal possessed.

Harold Childs passed away with the personal satisfaction of having reached a position at the very top of his profession, and his name will be long remembered as one of the all-time greats. (etc)

— He was reared in the Quaker faith and was respected by everyone for his outstanding character. Mr Childs never married, and his surviving relatives are his nephew and namesake Harold S. Childs, and a cousin Emory L. Webb.

During 7 years Mr. Childs was connected with the Ben F. White training stables at Lexington, Ky. and Orlando, Fla., he trained and developed three Hambletonian winners: Mary Reynolds (1933 2.03 $\frac{3}{4}$); Isola's Worthy (driven by "Marvin Childs" 1927, 2.03 $\frac{3}{4}$) and Main McElroy (driven by Harold M. " ").

Herbert Russell Childs

From West Liberty, Iowa, Index 7 Jan 1932. Dist.

"Herbert Russell Childs was born in West Liberty, Iowa, Aug 31, 1868, the younger son of William R. and Elizabeth Elliott Childs, who were identified with the earlier history of this community. His birthplace on Calhoun Street remained the family home for many years and still is spoken of as "the Childs property."

Herbert, known familiarly to everyone here as "Bert" attended the West Liberty Schools and completed his education at Fredericksburg, Virginia. He returned at once to West Liberty, where he entered the employ of the Rock Island Railroad Company December 28, 1889, remaining in this service until broken health compelled his retirement a little more than 2 weeks ago.

His marriage with Miss Margaret A. Sellers took place at the Sellers home in Moulton, Iowa Nov. 11, 1908. One son, Harold, was born to them, who survives with his mother. A brother, Harold, of Lexington, Ky, also survives. The parents and a baby sister preceded him in death.

... In his 42 years of service with the Rock Island Co. he had filled practically all of the positions, but for 3 years had been at his post as cashier.

Member of Christian Church, also Mt. Calvary Lodge, Liberty Chapter, and Swafford Council of the Masonic Brotherhood, also Brotherhood of Railway Clerks."

Dear Commander Chiles:-

Your letter of the 25th was received and enjoyably read by all members of my family. The wealth of detail which you have assembled is really great. I concur with you that this sort of thing can grow into a fascinating hobby.

From your personal history which you gave in your last letter I learned that you and my uncle are just about the same age. Also, was glad to hear that you have some railroad blood in your veins. Quite a few of my relatives were railroaders, Grandpa Childs included, and I, myself, am at present the Chief Clerk to the Coal Freight Agent for the Nickel Plate Railroad, in an off-line office of that railroad located in offices in Cincinnati, Ohio. If you are like the typical Childs I believe that you shape up like this: Height: 5' 9" tall, about 155 pounds, slightly balding, brown hair, brown eyes, and a healthy appetite. Tell me how close I came. Maybe you are not like the average. I used my uncle and my mother as the basis for the above description.

I am 27 years of age, 6 feet tall, 185 pounds, have black hair and brown eyes. Have been married almost 5 years, and have no children to date. Own my home at Florence, about 10 miles from Covington, Ky. Served in the Army and came out of the service as a sergeant, after 37 months. Have been working for the Nickel Plate for two years and plan to make railroading my career.

We have been having lousy weather down here for the last three weeks - so cloudy that I can't hope to get some good pictures of the tombstones, or of my uncle and mother to send you until it clears up. However, if you will bear with me I assure you that they will be sent your way as soon as the weather permits clear sharp pictures. For the time being, I am sending you this letter to fill in on a few details of the Meehan and Child's family which lived in this area.

JAMES MEEHAN
1833 - 1908

ELEANOR CHILDS MEEHAN
1839 - 1925

Married in February, 1859

and produced the following children in order of birthdate:

1. Robert E. Lee Meehan
2. Augustus Farnsworth Meehan
3. Grace Meehan
4. Betty Meehan

5. Lucy Meehan
6. Sallie Meehan
7. Willie Meehan
8. Sarah Meehan
9. Gertrude Meehan
10. Mary Meehan

A quick resume of the information I have been able to obtain from various sources concerning this family is as follows:

JAMES MEEHAN: 1833-1908, A short stocky man, who looked very much like Teddy Roosevelt. Earned his living in early life as a mechanic for the Southern Railway in Luclow, Ky. Later left this company and removed to Mexico, where he discovered a great copper deposit. Later sold out to copper interests and left Mexico worth in the hundreds of thousands of dollars. Became, with his wife, a world traveler. Died in 1908 a very wealthy man and left his estate to his wife and children.

ELEANOR CHILDS MEEHAN: 1839-1925. Was daughter of Mordecai Childs; married James Meehan in 1859. Was a cultured and educated woman, interested herself in history, travel, and writing. Wrote several books. History of the Childs family was one of her favorite pastimes. In her later years she lived on a vast estate near Covington, (Fort Mitchell, Ky.) had a home containing approximately 30 rooms. It was of pre Civil War design, and is still in use today, as beautiful today as it was in her day. One of her books was entitled Memories of a Red Letter Summer, copyright 1903, press of the Robert Clarke Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. We have a copy of this book, and it is all about her travels throughout the world, and contains several pictures of the family, i.e. James Meehan, herself, and daughter Grace, or Gertrude - I am not sure which of the two.

The Children

1. Robert E. Lee Meehan. Born during the Civil War and named after the Confederate general of that name. Worked for the Southern Railway for many years. After the founding of Meehan Industries he worked as their sales manager until his death in 1924.
2. Augustus (Gus) Farnsworth Meehan. Graduated from Harvard University. Chemist. Found method to be used in creating stainless steel, which process has been named Meehanite metal. Became President of the Meehan Industries with offices in Chattanooga and Atlanta. (unmarried)
3. Grace Meehan. Married Ed Read of Covington, Ky. Divorced. Later married Paul Hagemeyer, president of Tennessee Lumber Co. Had one son, Lee Read, who is now living with relatives in California. Lee is the person to whom most of the wealth of the Meehan family was left. Also, he may have all the scrap books and papers collected by Eleanor Childs Meehan. Don't know exactly where in California that he is living.

4. Betty Meehan. Married Dr. Rolf, a dentist of Cincinnati, Ohio. Had two daughters.
5. Lucy Meehan. Married Edward Brookfield and had one son. This son was killed in later years in a private plane crash in 1940's.
6. Sallie Meehan. Died at young age.
7. Willie Meehan. Died young.
8. Sarah Meehan. Nothing known, but believed to have died young.
9. Gertrude Meehan. Married Milburn Green, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Was living in California last report - now probably has died. Lee Read, son of Grace Meehan was living with her at last report. She is the only one of the ten Meehan children whose tombstone could not be found in the Meehan family plot at St. Marys Cemetery.
10. Mary Meehan. Born in 1879. Nothing else known. Now dead.

The Meehan plot is marked by a huge monument, approximately 30 feet tall. Individual head markers are on each of the graves. No dates were on most of the markers - just the first names of each of the children.

The Meehans that you found in the directory living on East 21st Street are no kin to this family of Meehans.

To fill you in on the two daughters of Preston Childs, son of Mordecai, we have found the following information:

Mary Childs. Daughter of Preston Childs, born in 1867, married Mr. Ed. Henderson of Covington, Ky. Had two sons; Richard, now dead, and Orville, believed to be living in Ashville, N. C.

Eleanor Anne Childs, daughter of Preston Childs, born in 1873. Married Mr. Rainey of Covington, Ky. Died in 1893 after giving birth to a son, Wallace, who later became editor of the Lexington, Ky. Herald newspaper. Wallace has a son, Kenneth Rainey, who is now living on Vine Street, Newport, Ky. according to our local phone book.

Concerning your comment on descendants of Nancy Childs, now believed living in Aurora, Ind, or Moores Hill. My wife's aunt and uncle live in Moores Hill and we often go over there for visits. Upon our next trip we will endeavor to look up the Griffins there. Hope to come up with something and let you know in the future.

Will have more data later and hope to be able to send some pictures too. The weather should clear up now that we are into May. Thanks so much for your nice letter and am very glad that we are now in contact with each other. I am sure our writing to each other will lead to many pleasant moments in pursuit of our hobby. Until next time, I remain,

Yours very truly,
